Juveniles Close Out Year With a Bang

By Steve Haskin

Bloodhorse

Many people believe that once the Kentucky Jockey Club Stakes, Remsen Stakes, and Los Alamitos Futurity are run, that is the end of the 2-year-old season as far as seeing potential Kentucky Derby hopefuls in action.

However, that is not the case at all. History has shown us that the winners of those three graded stakes are not necessarily where you want to look to find the Derby winner. A good place to look actually are the December maiden races, as trainers all over the country try to get a debut race into their most promising colts, partly so that they don't have to deal with the dreaded Apollo curse that we hear about every year. Yes, we are all aware that no horse has

GETTER QUEEN FLUSH
TW-10/15-Sat in to far turn, tipped out, cover midbend, swung wide, urged to hold. Decent form. Decent post. One more user.

WINDOW WIPER

BACK STOCK
TW-10/15-Looped, tucked mid turn, inherited 2hole last bend, urged, rallied, missed. Main danger to #1?

MELODIES THAT ROCK
Looped leaving, settled in behind top pair, chased to lane, driven, 3rd best. Hoping for a live cover trip.

LA MADAWNA DE ROSA
1st out past quarter, long grind on rim, kept marching, held fair. Drops but post woes.

MOONSHINEMONKEYS
3rd over well before half, gapped flow far turn, still coming on late tho. Another drop-per but #8 again. Plan?

won the Kentucky Derby who did not start at 2 since Apollo in 1882. To put things in perspective, that is six years after the Battle of Little Bighorn.

So, while most trainers will poo poo the so-called curse, be sure they are aware of it and that is why we see a mad rush of first-time starters in maiden races as we get closer to the end of the year. It could very well be timing, and trainers will claim this is when those colts just happen to be ready to make their debut. Let's just say there probably is truth to both.

As for the trainers running maidens who have already run, what better way to end the year than with that elusive maiden victory to get that out of the way and launch their promising juveniles onto the Derby trail.

To demonstrate the rush to beat the New Year, this past week alone there were 10 maiden special weight races run, to go along with one two-turn allowance race and three stakes — two minor sprints and the $400,000 Springboard Mile at Remington Park, which seems to attract better horses each year, and which showcased a very talented winner this year in Greyvitos.

Not only did we see a parade of maidens this week, we saw many of them come from the more powerful barns, such as Pletcher, Baffert, Asmussen, Hollendorfer, Mott, and Casse. What we came away with was a boatload of promising colts who, whether they won or lost, look to have enormous potential.

Pletcher, who has two monster maiden winners — Montauk and Noble Indy — sitting in the barn waiting for bigger and better things, was back in action at his favorite playground, Gulfstream Park, where he sends out overwhelming favorites like they are produced on an assembly line. Pletcher saddled three promising winners this week, starting with IMPACT PLAYER, who survived a match race-like duel with a tough first-time starter from Jeremiah Englehart's barm named PROJECTOR, as the two battled head to head every step of the way, with Impact Player prevailing by a nose. More important, there was a 10 3/4-length gap back to the third in the six-furlong race run in a snappy 1:09 4/5. It's just a question how far both colts want to go.

Then on December 16 came victories at Aqueduct and Gulfstream with classic types MARCONI and NAVISTAR. Marconi, a $2 million yearling purchase by Tapit, out of the dam of Mucho Macho Man, was particularly impressive despite running his second straight slow race. But I cannot recall seeing any 2-year-old make the first two starts of his career at 2 in 1 1/8-mile races on dirt. That is asking a lot of a 2-year-old, and when they run back-to-back races in 1:54

2/5, you would think that would dull a young horse, having never asked him for speed and running him that far on two occasions. But Aqueduct has a tendency to get very deep late in the year, especially running in December with the inner track gone, so I don't judge a horse by time going that distance.

As unorthodox as running in two nine-furlong races may be, I have to admit I was extremely impressed with Marconi, who broke several lengths behind the field, then made a big early run from last the length of the backstretch that usually results in a suicide move. Marconi steadily closed the gap and moved right up behind the leaders only to steady behind horses and lose his momentum. It took him a while to gather up momentum once again, but once he got rolling for the second time, he charged to the lead on his own and drew off to a 5 1/2-length victory. It's hard to tell what he beat, so you can't get overly excited, but from a visual sense, this was an impressive performance that makes him one to watch, even if he is in New York rather than in Florida with the main string. It's just a question of sharpening him up to see what kind of speed he possesses.

As for Navistar, he looked good winning a six-furlong maiden race first time out at Gulfstream. Typical of Pletcher firsters, he was 2-5 and had a perfect trip stalking the leader, taking over in the stretch and maintaining a 1 1/2-length lead to the wire.

Unlike Marconi, this son of Union Rags cost "only" $900,000. This race was not just about the winner, as the runner-up, HE TAKES CHARGE, another expensive Tapit colt ($675,000) from the barn of Mark Casse, had nowhere to run, stuck on the rail, and closed well after being shifted to the outside, while third-place finisher, LOCOMOTION, trained by Bill Mott, had a hole close on him in the

He was able to use the two longest stretches at Churchill Downs and Fair Grounds to his advantage, increasing his lead with every stride. He no doubt will be in the Top 5 of everyone's Derby rankings and is primed perfectly for his stakes debut.

Speaking of Asmussen and Tapit, that combination came through once again last week when ZING ZANG rallied from well back in a 12-horse field in his third career start, winning going away by 2 1/2 lengths at Fair Grounds.

He sent out another runner in COMBATANT, an impressive Churchill Downs maiden winner by Scat Daddy who ran a bang-up race to be second to Greyvitos in the Springboard Mile, finishing 5 1/4 lengths ahead of the third horse in the 12-horse field. I really like the way this colt was running in the final furlong, pulling away from the rest of the field. I like that he is inbred top and bottom to Damascus and that his fourth dam is the great Canadian filly and producer Fanfreluche, who produced three champions.

Although Bob Baffert did not have a winner last week, sending out a pair of second-place finishers in maiden races, one of them, first-time starter RESTORING HOPE, looks destined for stardom.

Hollendorfer-trained colt who was favored based on a series of sensational five- and six-furlong workouts.

Restoring Hope, a Gary and Mary West home-bred, was brought to my attention several weeks earlier when Baffert said he had a Giant's Causeway colt who he was very high on. Dropping back to seventh early, he unleashed the most explosive turn of foot I've seen by any 2-year-old this year and then had to fan some six-wide turning for home. Down the stretch, he kicked into another gear and was a thing of beauty in motion, with a big powerful stride that was as perfect as you could ask from a young horse. He was perfectly balanced, kept a perfectly straight course, and was as professional as a veteran campaigner. He closed relentlessly, but his run fell a nose short of catching All Out Blitz, who had two good starts under his belt, including a solid third at Del Mar in 2nd over past quarter, loose cover far turn, urged just fair. Post relief noted. Longshot though.

PLACE AT THE BEACH

IF YOU SAY SO

Parked eighth plus, hit the brakes 101.4 middle half, sped home easily. Hikes, adds fresh Lasix.

PERFECT PITCH

Stuck last thru modest fractions, asked a bit last bend, failed to get involved. Couple weeks off. Mooney's choice.

WINDSUN T BIRD

Sat in the trip, found room into lane, angled back inside, solid close. Dave returns. Solid form. Must use.

COASTAL TREASURE

Left under urging, tracked from 3hole, followed winner into str, driven to narrow gap. Also in shape. One more to include.

CENALTA ARTISTRY

Away fast, repelled parked full longshot to half, kept marching, stalled deep str. week off. What's the plan from outside?

SURPRISINGLY SWEET

All Out Blitz, tracked Montmartre the whole way and had a tough time putting him away, but take nothing away from him and Montmartre, who were both very game down the stretch and both of whom will be heard from. I look for this to be one of the strongest maiden races of the year.

Baffert's other runner-up finish was with another West homebred, DESTINY AWAITS, a son of Curlin who improved big-time with the addition of blinkers.

The latter upset the 3-5 favorite HOLLAND PARK, by Tapit, out of Round Pond, owned and bred by Godolphin, winning wire to wire by three lengths in a four-horse field. The final two maiden races were won by the Tom Amoss-trained DRENA'S STAR at Fair Grounds and P R RADIO STAR at Hawthorne. Before dismissing Hawthorne. P R Radio Star absolutely demolished his opponents by 12 1/2 lengths in 1:10 3/5 and looked like a man against boys. This performance really caught the eye.

THE WARM-UPS

The track is busy between races, with horses warming-up for later races. Standardbreds are a rugged breed and this activity enhances their performance. About two hours prior to racing, the trainer will "jog" the horse, the same way any athlete runs to loosen-up prior to competing. Generally, the horse is jogged by going the "wrong way" (clockwise) on the track, following a traffic pattern that is standard on tracks all over North America. About an hour before his race, he's warmed-up again. Different trainers have different methods. Some go slowly, others ask for speed. Only experts can detect such things as lameness. Look, though, to see if his gait is fluid. If it is, chances are he's ready to do his best. As a rule, those working out between races ONE and TWO are in final preparation for the FOURTH RACE, those between TWO and THREE will be preparing for the FIFTH RACE, etc.

SADDLE PADS

Saddle pads at Cal Expo will indicate the horse's betting number and the race number in a smaller size, in upper right hand corner. In the adjacent example: HORSE NUMBER 3 IN THE SEVENTH RACE.

the Springboard Mile and being pushed out seven-wide going into the first turn. He still was able to get good position down the backstretch, right off the leaders, put them away with no trouble and held off the strong run by 2-1 favorite Combatant to win by 2 1/4 lengths. The son Malibu Moon has now won back-back stakes, having scored in the grade 3 Bob Hope Stakes at Del Mar for trainer Adam Kitchingman. To ship to Oklahoma and beat a good field the way he did after the trauma he went through, he must be a pretty extraordinary colt, and one many will be rooting for.

At Tampa Bay, 2-5 favorite TRICKS TO DOO showed his 5 3/4-length maiden win at Laurel was no fluke, as he crushed his field in the six-furlong Inaugural Stakes, winning by 7 1/4 lengths in a sharp 1:09 2/5. By Into Mischief, out of a Polish Numbers mare, there is no reason why he shouldn't stretch out to longer distances. And finally we had the six-furlong Sugar Bowl Stakes at Fair Grounds won by LAND BATTLE, who wired 1-5 favorite STEEL SHOT, trained by Mark Casse, in only a three-horse field.

So that is quite a 2-year-old smorgasbord for a week in December heading into Christmas. You can be sure that a number of horses mentioned here will be heard from in the months to come, including several of those who are still maidens.

There were some fantastic performances that will propel these maiden, allowance, and stakes winners and those who ran big in defeat into Derby contention. And many of those firsters who made the starting gate no longer will have Apollo hanging over their head. In looking for potential Derby horses, you couldn't ask for a more exciting conclusion to 2017.

Now let's see if any others sneak in under the gun in the final week.
