Trainer Andrew Harris sends a Hi-5 out on Saturday

By Jay Bergman

When Andrew Harris entered five horses for the Meadowlands Saturday program he expected to have some live prospects. On a positive note is the streaking Obscene Blue Chip, a winner in two of his three starts at the Meadowlands. On the down side was learning that two pacing mares for which he has high expectations managed to get into the same class.

"I was hoping to get Elm Grove Inarush into the non-winners of $11,000 class," said Harris. "I wasn't happy when I noticed Cousin Mary in the same race."

These are the facts of winter racing at The Meadowlands, as a limited supply of horses has forced some classes to be combined in order for races to fill.

SANTANNA SAM

Moved from back excess cover far turn, came wide, urged, solid close considering. Back inside. Another slice maybe.

MIGHTY FINE HIHO

Quarter moved to easy lead, shook off attacker in quick qtr, sped home, strong again. Razor sharp. Hikes and also get some post relief. Adds Nick.

REGINA BEACH

Out past quarter, loose cover balance, faded from the skir-mish. Tries claimers. Adds chip.

MINT TO CRUISE

Led early, yielded, followed winner out midfar turn, urged, almost. Lost as favorite three of last four. Still must use.

LIL ORPHAN ELMER

Parked half turn, yielded, pocket pulled midfar turn, urged to deny 2nd over fave. Good form. Tries Gerry tonight.

ART GENTA

Well back early, failed to get involved. Steve returns. Class relief. Gotta use him.

PAYDAZE A ROCKIN

Cover near 3/8s, soon 4th over, angled wide, solid rally near wire. Mooney's choice. Also drops. Has some speed too.

WHO DAT LOVE

1st out near half, cover midfar turn, faded into the lane. Outside again what's the plan?

Race 2 News

Harris has been nothing but pleased thus far with Obscene Blue Chip, an altered son of Western Ideal that came to the Meadowlands in mid-December with just one victory through an entire 3-year-old campaign. "We bought him off Ron Burke for $15,000," said Harris. "We were just looking for a good non-winners horse to race at Yonkers."

Sent off at a healthy 85-1 from post four in his Meadowlands debut, the public was hardly convinced in the gelding. But Harris had his own feelings on the subject. "I told Tyler (Buter, his driver) that the horse would be good in this class. He really didn't have much chance racing at Yonkers from the outside posts. Whenever he drew inside he raced well."

Obscene Blue Chip made a last-to-first move in the homestretch scoring in a career best 1:52 2/5 mile. The gelding returned two weeks later

FRANKS BEST

TAME THE DICE

1st over into far turn, loose cover into lane, driven. Form just fair. Slice?

RSS EXPRESS

1st out well before half, led into last bend, attacked, faded from the skirmish. Been tossing hints. Another undercard thought.

WINSOM KELLY

Settled early, out far turn, nice lead up trip, light urging, away. Why not right back?

LIVID LUKE

Led early, yielded near quarter, back out far turn, held well to end. Nick's choice. Gimmick player again.

JESSESJO

Led at once, released, tracked, little urging, solid comeback tuner. How ready will he be?

BROADWAY ATHENA

Led at once, yielded past quarter, stalked to lane, closed well on own. Another returning from vacation. Very dangerous if ready.

with a solid second-place finish again coming from the back of the pack. Last Saturday in Obscene Blue Chip's first start of 2018 he was even more convincing, making a bold move on the backstretch for driver Austin Siegelman and romping by more than five lengths in the non-winners of 4 races class.

On Saturday Obscene Blue Chip steps up to race with older horses in a non-winners of $8,875 in last 5 starts race, but Harris appears undaunted. "We've been racing him from off the pace because I think that's worked for him. But now that he has some confidence I don't think it would hurt him to leave a little," Harris said.

With Elm Grove Inarush (post 5) and Cousin Mary (post 10) both in race 6, a non-winner's of $15,000 in last 5 starts event, Harris has two legitimate chances at victory.

ARMY OF ONE

Rode rail whole trip, heavy traffic into lane, never fully clear. Rail. Small field. Gotta use him for sure.

BLUE STAR MAVERICK

Saved all ground, 4hole last bend, rallied well last sixteenth. Sharp. Drops. One more gimmick contender.

BARBOSA

Led early, yielded, 3hole trip to lane, urged, then more traffic. Third start off the claim. Steve stays.

SCARY HARRY

Out near quarter, long grind on rim, held okay to the end. Should benefit from the smaller field size.

SWAGASAUUSREX

Looped, parked half turn, tracked to lane, loose a bit late, solid rally. With one exception, recent form is solid. Player.

LINCOLN

Out past half, lost cover round the bend, kept grinding, urged to reach. Outside again but could be braver off the drop down win.

Race 4 News

"She (Elm Grove Inarush) was actually pretty good in her last start at Yonkers," said Harris. As for Cousin Mary, "One of these days she's going to get to the front end and set a lifetime mark."

"She's such an honest little horse. It really doesn't matter how you race her. Corey (Callahan) told me if he gets out a step earlier she would have won last time," Harris said of Cousin Mary, who gets to start from the outermost post for the second straight week.

Allstar Partner (post 7) steps up in class a bit in race eight, a non-winners of $15,000 in last 5 starts affair.

"His game is really the five-eighths mile track," said Harris, with recognition that both eastern Pennsylvania tracks of that measurement are currently on hiatus. Still Allstar Partner has plenty of class and enough early foot to be a factor.

2. Going inside three (3) or more consecutive pylons: The offending horse will be disqualified and placed last.

Race 5 News

In Brickman, Harris' entrant in race nine, a non-winners of $5,000 conditioned event, the trainer is hoping for good things if not this week than most definitely down the road. "He suffered an injury after we claimed him," said Harris of the 6-year-old Brickman. "He's come back pretty well and I'm very happy with him. I think over time we'll get him back up in class."

Brickman also landed post 10 in the ninth race on the card.

Brickman and Obscene Blue Chip are both owned by Ronald Seigfried. "He's a new owner, a guy who was gambling on horses and he called me last year looking to get into ownership," said Harris.

"His first horse was Sure Fired Bet that we did well with last year before he got claimed. He also bought a yearling (Miss Me Much by Art Major) that I'm training."

Remembering Somebeachsomewhere

By Derick Gwerner

Somebeachsomewhere's narrow defeat to Art Official in the 2008 Meadowlands Pace was perhaps the greatest race in Harness Racing history. At the very least it ranks right up there with Wiggle It Jiggleit's gutsy 2015 Little Brown Jug win. The thing is, just like in the movie Rocky, there is something about the horse everyone is rooting for losing valiantly that makes the moment all the more special.

The strange thing is that I can vividly remember watching Wiggle It Jiggleit win the Jug, visiting him on the backstretch after the race and even writing the race recap.

For the life of me, I can't recall being at The Meadowlands for Somebeachsomewhere's lone defeat. Maybe it was because I'm getting older and the memories from 10 years ago aren't quite as clear as those from three years back?

When it comes to Somebeachsomewhere, for me, the race that remains ingrained in my head is the $650,000 Messenger Pace at Yonkers Raceway. There are many reasons why.

+Somebeachsomewhere came to Yonkers! For years Yonkers was simply a place for overnight horses and "B" caliber stakes types. Finally we had the best horse in the sport if not in history competing.

+The race was contested in a full-on monsoon. It

2011 through 2017 according to statistics on harnessracing.com. That total places him tens of thousands ahead of his nearest rival. And the average is only rising despite strong competition from first-time stallions like Sweet Lou and Captaintreacherous, another son of Somebeachsomewhere.

Which leads us to what could propel his already superior legacy to even new heights – his sons.

Captaintreacherous ($3,148,657) will see his first foals hit the track in 2018, and Down by the side ($2,025,528) and Huntsville ($1,704,242) will begin their stallion career this year.

If only one of those three comes within arm's reach of what their dad did in the breeding shed, it will in all likelihood take Somebeachsomewhere's already stellar reputation to even greater heights.

MYSTERY DRAGON
Reserved to half, tipped out on rim, tried to accelerate late in the bend, urged, fair into fast final quarter. James returns. Rail. Use.

LAISSEZMOIPICOLER
Parked half turn, soft trip to the lane, cleared, urged just fair. Fair form. Undercard?

CRASH AND BURN
Moved up on loose cover train, knocked offstride by breaker into lane. Chip's choice. Better post. Price stab?

MAJOR JESSE
Sent from gate, pocket trip behind winner to lane, driven to save show. Tony's back. Can also play here.

HE GRINS AGAIN
Gapped along rail to far turn, angled into lane, urged. Sits and sprints home?

HAPPY HEATH
Led into turn, braked while untested to top of lane, sped home when asked, held off late clearing foe. Probably fires out. User.

FORGIVEUSOURZINS
Appeared to come 3rd over, followed rival 3wide, urged, up. Extra week off. Back outside though.

WESTERN DEVIL
Out from last 2nd over past half, followed fave to lane, driven, no rally. What's the plan from #8?

MACHABYEBABY

Regardless of what measure used to weigh the accomplishments of Somebeachsomewhere, he comes out at or near the top.

He holds the record as the richest single-season 3-year-old pacer in history and is the top ranked (11th overall) horse on the all-time earnings list with two or fewer seasons of racing.

He ranks sixth in history with $49,236,837 earned by his 2 and 3-year-old offspring in just six years of opportunity, but far and away first in average earnings per starter at an amazing $140,275.

Will we ever see another Somebeachsomewhere? It is hard to imagine, but we can dream.

Individual Recap Last Race Footnotes

PERFECT PITCH
Out near half, eliminated behind dead cover, fair late moves. Mooney's choice. Big shot.

BE MY LUCKY LADY
Behind gapper to half, out on rim, cover into far turn, followed winner, driven, no rally. Steve returns. Inside. Thought.

DOUBLE MYSTERY
Gapped to half, shuffled last, cleared in lane, driven to narrow gap. Should also sit in and rally home.

SPEAK ENGLISH
Looped leaving, parked half turn, took back, out again last bend, urged, just fair. Better post. But longshot.

SHEZ A SWIFT
Left 3wide, parked quarter, attacked far turn, kept grinding tried to fight back. Drew better. One more thought.

SOUL DIVA
Sent under urging, yielded, backed up bit last bend, cleared str, driven. Nick's choice. Does have speed.

CHILMA
Parked half turn, yielded quarter, stalked to lane, found seam along cones, urged, many across. William hops aboard. Leaves?

HI FIDELITY
Led from gate, yielded, back 1st over into far turn, faded from hard use. Drops from Schapiro. Ryan stays.

CORDEES FANTASY
Out from back near half, excess cover last turn, still rallied fast late. Another killer post. Needs some luck.

AWHIMAWAY
1st out near half, surged right by leader, began to stall deep str, held ok. Probably has to fire out from #10.
