New career on horizon

For Nutmegs Desire

"In one of her last races at Running Aces this summer, as she was charging down the stretch to her 49th win, someone yelled out 'Go on Grandma, you can do it'!

"No one told 'Grandma' this was a finish," Barbara said. "Steve will tell you that when he tries to pull her up after a race. If you aren't flying back to the winner's circle, then she's ready to go around again. Once you put that yellow hood on, she's ready to work."

In a few months, Nutmegs Desire will go from being a veteran racemare to a young broodmare.

"When the snows melt in Canada in early March, she'll be on her way to having those babies that we will look forward to seeing," Arnstine noted.

"Meanwhile, that yellow hood will keep pushing to the front, trying to win and prove a credit to the breed."

CHIEF SARATOGA

Sped from gate, blazed the clip to lane, stalled out final eighth. Class relief, rail, gotta use him.

MAJOR JESSE

1st over from half, began to fade out round final bend, tired. Also drops, favorable draw. Figures too.

RED STAR TIGER

Led early, yielded, back out on rim midfar turn, got by leader, caught late. Rene returns. Another thought.

JOHNNY GUN

Cover from half, not a good flow, followed 3wide into lane, driven, just fair. Class and minor post relief. Maybe.

ULYSSES BLUE CHIP

Far back from outset, checked behind breaker into the lane, no threat. Seems unlikely at the moment.

CENALTA DIESEL

Left under urging, brushed back 3/8s, attacked into lane, faded out final sixteenth. Fair form. He's one of many.

ALLAMERICAN SOLO

Settled early, easy run to lane, mild traffic, urged, photo'd for 3rd. James returns. Outside though.

Sam Riddle on Man o' War Part Two by Steve Haskin

Jimmy Rowe had tried to knock Man o' War over with John P. Grier and then with Upset, the latter at Saratoga in the Travers Stakes, in which Man o' War picked up 129 pounds, conceded six to Upset, winner of the Latonia Derby that year, and fourteen to John P. Grier. Man o' War beat both Upset and John P. Grier in a romp. Still, Jimmy Rowe wasn't convinced Man o' War was invincible that year, so in the Potomac he tried a third string to his bow in the shape of Wildair, who had won the Metropolitan Handicap that year at the expense of Thunderclap and On Watch.

"Blazes had been a good stakes winner at two and three and his trainer, that lovable character 'Uncle Billy' Garth, was so sanguine Blazes was going to win that he wanted to make a private bet with me on the result at $200 even up. This I refused to do, but agreed to lay Blazes to win, $200 at the closing odds. Billy Garth's confidence was strengthened by the condition of the track. It was in wretched shape, cut up and heavy, a surface that Gapped, lost contact. Looks like an outsider once again.

WINKWINKNUDGENUDGE

Parked most turn one, kept a blazing clip, caught by pesky pocket sitter, ouch. Solid form. Gimmick must.

DANCINGONTHE SAND

Sat in to far turn, kicked 3-4wide, urged to narrow gap. Solid tuneup. Obvious figure horse.

THEREALGOODS

Left fast, yielded to fave, stalked, urged, surged, up, wow. Price is gonna drop now. Another danger.

PINK LADY

Led at once, yielded, back out 1st over midfar turn, held tough to wire. Odds will also drop on her. Third start angle.

EDDIE BRUSH

Came from back far turn, behind poor flow, cleared, urged, faded out from the chase. Dean's choice. Outside again. Plan?

Blazes loved and one that it was felt would seriously handicap Man o' War. Again, Feustel had his doubts. He tried to prevail upon me to withdraw the colt, pointing out the track conditions coupled with the weight he was giving away would probably bring about his defeat.

"But the spectators had come to see Man o' War run, his name had been put in the entry list the night before, and I was determined to see if he were horse enough to surmount the obstacles against him. Once again he justified the faith reposed in him by his legion of admirers, and at the finish line was the best part of two lengths (again 1 1/2 lengths) in front of Wildair. He won in new track-record time for the distance, 1:44 4/5. (Wildair finished 15 lengths in front of Blazes).

"And that was the last time the American public ever saw Man o' War in action. About a month later he went to Kenilworth Park, Canada to meet Sir Barton in their match race at a mile and a quarter. Sir Barton, owned by Jack Ross and trained by Guy Bedwell, was a racehorse of the highest class, but that afternoon he was only the shadow of the horse he had been. lengths in new track-record time of 2:03.

"That concluded the labors of Man o' War on the racetrack. In the two seasons he ran he started in 21 races, winning 20, was second in the other and earned $249,465, making him the leading American money winner up to that time.

"Determined to utilize him as a stock horse when his racing days were over, I purchased land in Kentucky not far from Lexington and established the Faraway Stud with Man o' War at its head.

"He was a success at the outset. In his first season he sired seven winners of 14 races and among them were American Flag, winner of the Withers, Belmont, and other stakes, By Hissself, Gun Boat, Maid At Arms, and Florence Nightingale, all good stakes winners.

"Since the retirement of Man o' War, I have been fortunate in owning, either through breeding or by purchase, a number of good horses, not to be mentioned in the same breath as Man o' War, naturally, but several of them stakes winners of class.

"And that brings up the question as to which was the greatest son of Man o' War.

PYLON RULE

(For Horses Racing Without Interference)

1. Going inside two (2) pylons and lapped-on at the finish: The offending horse will be disqualified and placed behind any lapped-on horses at the wire.
2. Going inside three (3) or more consecutive pylons: The offending horse will be disqualified and placed last.
3. If an unfair advantage is gained by going inside, over, or in-between one or more pylons in order to pass another competitor: The offending horse will be disqualified.

The steward's discretion applies to all placement.

Race 5 News

While the racing public might consider this rank heresy I am not satisfied as yet in my own mind whether Man o' War's mantle as a racehorse should fall on the shoulders of Crusader or War Admiral. Possibly the current racing season may clarify the situation, but at this writing, as Will Honeycomb would phrase it. 'There is much to be said on both sides.'"

This was before War Admiral's 4-year-old campaign when he won 10 of his 12 starts. As a 3-year-old and 4-year-old he would win 17 of his 19 starts. In a separate document, here are Riddle's comments about a young War Admiral.

"When he came up from Kentucky as a yearling, he was about as big as a goat. Nobody paid any attention to him. While he worked very well at the farm, we had rather a heavy boy on him, and in consequence he never showed. But when we got down to Havre de Grace in the spring of the year, Dr. R.D. Connely, the great veterinarian, was there. One morning we were trying him, and for the first time War Admiral opened our eyes. This veterinarian couldn't get anything out of me. He asked what I thought of him, and I said he was all right. But from that time on we were careful of this little horse. We were satisfied that we had something very nice, and fast, much better than an empty stall.

"We only ran him six races as a two-year-old. He never was out of the money. He lost two races and won four. Then he improved so that he became a very good horse as a three-year-old. When we left the stable we measured him. He was 15 hands, 2 1/2 inches ((No, fans of the Seabiscuit movie, he was not 18 hands tall) and weighed 1050 pounds. Before he went to Florida, before he went into the Widener Handicap, he measured exactly the same; he never grew any bigger, and I don't think he ever will.

"He eats well and is a good hay eater. He is a great sleeper and nothing annoys him. He is like a dog, and he is a good traveler, ships well. The only time he gets started is when he goes to the post. He wants to run and knows the prize is at the other end, and he wants to hurry up and go out and get it."

Meanwhile, at the time of his recollections, Riddle was preparing to celebrate Man o' War's 21st birthday.

"We are going to have his birthday party on the twenty ninth of March. I believe the

STARTER'S RULES

1728. Starter's Control. The starter shall have control over the horses from the formation of the parade until he gives the word 'go.' The starter shall report to the stewards any misconduct or violation on the part of the driver and may order any unmanageable or disabled horse declared (scratched) from the race with the concurrence of the stewards.

1729. Starting the race. The starter shall bring the horses to the starting gate as near one-quarter of a mile from the starting point as the track may permit, and shall endeavor to get all horses away in position and on gait. If a horse refuses to come to the gate, is unmanageable or liable to cause an accident or injury to any other horse or driver, it may be declared and all monies wagered on that horse shall be refunded.

1730. Recalls. The starter may sound a recall for only the following reasons: 1-A horse scored ahead of the gate; 2- There is interference prior to the word 'go' being given; 3-A horse has broken equipment; 4-A horse falls prior to the word 'go' being given. There shall be no recall after the word 'go' is given and any horse, regardless of his position or an accident, shall be deemed a starter from the time he entered into the starter's control unless dismissed.

Individual Recap Last Race Footnotes

HI HO HOUDINI
Left fast, yielded before quarter, tracked to midstr, cleared, 3across late. Player from the pole.

STYLEMASTER
Rode rail whole trip, shook out in lane, driven, only fair. Adds Mark. Longshot.

IM BLUE TOO
Moved up near half, cover to lane, urged, surged, up late. Good form. Better post too. Use.

BEST DREAM SEEKER
Sent to drop, soft trip behind pocket winner, cleared, some urging, easy 2nd best. Rick takes the drive.

BLUE STAR MAVERICK
Off gate pair, 3rd over past half, angled wide into lane, just a mild rally. Mooney's choice. Class and post relief. Danger.

BURNTISLAND BILLY
Left to tuck, backed up to lane, cleared, solid late interest. Drops a notch. Not impossible.

CANTHOLDMEBACKMACK
3rd over past half, followed winner's cover to lane, photo'd for show slot. Pretty good spot. Adds Gerry.

MINT TO CRUISE
Hopped on cover train past half, angled 3wide around tired foe, urged to narrow gap. Luke returns to steer.

GD ROCK MY WORLD
Parked turn, yielded to retaker, slid out 2nd over into lane, some urging, away. Hikes and moves outside.

URINGOODHANDS
Settled early, soft trip to the str, mild traffic, some drive, safely 3rd best. Probably coming from last.

DONTDOUBTTHELAKERS
Pushed half turn, yielded, behind last turn gapper, cleared, driven, just fair. Adds Dean.

TIMETOPLAYTHEGAME
1st out past half, attacked fav far turn, got by, lost to one he led up. Price gonna drop.

BETTOR IN THE BANK
Rode cones to lane, mild traffic, tough to gauge late interest. Adds Nathan. Don't rule her out.

JUSTABITCRAZY
Left, brushed back past quarter, shook off last turn attacker, urged to hold, tough. Sharp, steps up.

WALKER MEISTER
Rode cones the whole way, encountered heavy stretch traffic, never fully free. Gerry drives. Longshot.

PRODIGAL
Settled in for soft trip, 2hole far turn, urged, just fair into quick panel. Drops. Adds Rene. Usable.

TO THE LIMIT
Parked eighth plus, kept honest clip, sped home, good return tuner. Obvious readiness question.

MISTER HAT
Left 3wide, parked quarter to top, yielded to retaker, gapped bit last bend, many across deep str. Luke's choice. Outside again. Price stab?

LAST DRAGON
Tipped out into last bend, failed to advance. Another dropper. Outside. Does have speed though.

HIHOS LITTLE REV
Parked eighth plus, yielded to winner past quarter, chased rest of way, urged. Hikes, 10 hole. Plan?

GENERAL TIME

2nd over coming to half, burst 3wide into lane, led, caught, ouch. Player from the pole.

MYSTERY DRAGON

1st out half, advanced to top of lane but faded out final furlong. Decent form. Gimmick must.

COZ AND EFFECT

Hopped on cover train past half, good lead up trip, mild traffic, stalled bit late. Post relief. Adds Ryan.

SILENT RESCUE

Left to pocket, stalked to mid-stretch, some urging, away, easy. Gary's choice. Player too.

JOHN MD

Sped from gate, yielded, backed up to str, cleared, mild late interest. Might juice exotics.

CONTEMPORAY LEGEND

Shuffled last far turn, tipped out 4th over, kicked 4-5wide, flew too late. Big threat for all.

CRUSIN FOR YOU

1st over from back far turn, failed to sustain the bid. Drops. Outside again. Adds Mooney.

WESTERN DEVIL

Led from gate, braked to half, battled fave in quick 3rd panel, stalled suddenly once passed. Steve's choice. Adds to speed equation.
