John Berry; "Jack of all Trades"

By Jessica Hallett

Screaming and shouting, cries of joy echoing throughout the grandstand.

These echoes travel across the racetrack to where drivers, trainers, owners, and grooms can hear.

Anyone within an ears distance can hear these chants and cheers. The atmosphere of the racetrack brings a variety of emotions whether it be tears of joy or sadness, screams of happiness or anger, the crowd is never silent.

The noise doesn't fall short of the horsemen and women that work behind the scenes and stand near the paddock gate watching their horse race on any given night.

However, there is one voice that overpowers them all, draining out all of the noise. Rather than

INDIO AZTECA

Slow leaving, gapped in come-backer, avoided break. Only Trotter in the race as a difficult assignment.

HAGGINATTHEBEACH

Left well, tracked to far turn, tipped out, got by leader, caught late. Obvious gimmick must. Price drops though.

CENALTA GLORY

Sat in to midfar turn, loose cover into lane, some urging to save place. Been tossing hints. One more to include.

PECAN

1st over half, didn't advance much, flattened. Minor post relief. Steve in the bike. Would be a surprise though.

SPICE AND ICE

Left well, yielded, back out late last turn, driven, just fair. Solid form. Looks as good as any in here.

BIG RIVER

Rode rail the trip, failed to make any menacing moves. We'll have to watch another.

I WILL SCORE

Out before half, not a good flow last turn, angled wide, failed to rally. Outside again. James returns.

READ ME MY RIGHTS

Parked half turn, tracked to lane, urged, air. Another tough post. But might be able to juice exotics.

putting the name to the face, people put the name to the voice for one track announcer, John Berry.

John Berry is a man of many talents and wears many hats as most would say.

"He is the Picasso of Harness Racing. Journalistic knowledge and professionalism second to none," Wally Hennessey, Hall of Fame Driver and leading trainer at Pompano Park, recounts.

Aside from a race announcer, John Berry has played a vital role in harness racing as anything from a race office assistant to a publicity man to a live broadcaster. It's no doubt that John Berry is one of many that form the base of the horse racing business.

In the February 5, 1964 edition of The Horseman and Fair World, the week Pompano Park opened, there was a letter to the editor concerning time trials by John Berry.

LA DIVA DE ROSA

4th over behind winner far turn, followed 3wide, driven, no rally. Rail offers a glimmer of hope. Underneath maybe.

PLACE AT THE BEACH

Led early, backed up to 3/4s, angled out, some urging in traffic. Some excuses of late. She deserves inclusion in exotics.

BOOZER BRUISER

Sped from gate, yielded, traffic to midstr, cleared late, urged. Post relief might be enough to get her an overdue score.

HI FIDELITY

Parked turn to top, yielded to retaker, cleared in lane, urged. Also benefits post-wise. Fires out? Solid threat again.

CENALTA COUGAR

Sent with many, quarter moved back, attacked far turn, stalled deep stretch. Another obvious player. Her plan from the outside?

And here we are, 53 years later, and Berry is still at it---writing brilliant, informative stories, announcing on occasion, co-hosting the Pompano Park pre-race show, writing a handicapping column, and serving the horsemen and our sport with the same enthusiasm that was evident back more than a half century ago.

Inducted into the Hall of Fame as a communicator several years ago, he has participated in school career days, countless charitable events, seminars, and many promotions to enhance the image of harness racing.

He was even highlighted on a CBS (Chicago) news segment entitled "Someone You Should Know."

The feeling all horsemen know or come to know at some point in their careers is the moment when your horse is pacing or trotting lengths ahead of the pack at the three-quarter pole.

NEVERMISSABEAT

Far back early, loose cover far turn, just a mild rally. Switches inside with start under his belt. Small shot.

WINONEFORDOUG

Led early, soon 3rd, tracked balance, cleared, some urging, second best. Well drawn. Slim call among this group.

REVOLER

Slow early, gapped some far turn, urged, had some late interest wire. Certainly could be tighter after the tuner.

MCCEDDES

Left 4wide, parked turn, yielded to fave, followed, stalled late. Veteran gets post relief.

SECRET CHORD

Slow leaving, at the back, no rally in the comebacker. Appears to be a longshot once more.

CHILLINLIKEAVILLIN

Left to tuck, out into far turn, cover from winner midbend, urged to save show. James returns. Big threat for all the marbles.

BOS SO HOT

Left 3wide, parked eighth plus, yielded quarter, tracked, faded out late stages. Stuck outside. Would be a surprise.

Race 4 News

Down the stretch and the win is a guarantee. That moment in time is brief but the memory of the feeling lasts a lifetime. At this point in John Berry's life, it was like he had experienced this brief moment forever.

"That was amazing, I must admit," Berry smiled. "It was a surreal moment. "I used to get films from Sportsman's Park---16 millimeter films---and I went to different nursing homes and rehab facilities lugging my 50-pound projector to put racing programs on for the patients there.

"I went to the administrators of these facilities to see who needed a morale boost, so to speak." Berry explained. "Then, I made programs up and put patients down as drivers of the horses. On this one occasion, the 'winning' driver was a lady that had a stroke several months prior and could not speak.

"Well, after the race," Berry said. "I went right up to her with her daugh-

(For Horses Racing Without Interference)

1. Going inside two (2) pylons and lapped-on at the finish: The offending horse will be disqualified and placed behind any lapped-on horses at the wire.
2. Going inside three (3) or more consecutive pylons: The offending horse will be disqualified and placed last.
3. If an unfair advantage is gained by going inside, over, or in-between one or more pylons in order to pass another competitor: The offending horse will be disqualified.

ter alongside and congratulated her on her win. I asked her to tell me how she won the race (as the doctors and nurses were cautioning me that she couldn't speak) and she grabbed the 'mike' and, after struggling a bit, said, "I tried hard'.

"To say that the doctors and nurses were amazed is an understatement," Berry recalled. "Their jaws literally dropped. The administrators got ahold of CBS news about this miracle of sorts and, a few weeks later, when another show at the facility was arranged, CBS was there with a crew and it became a segment on a newscast in Chicago.

"It wasn't necessary," John said, "but they said this story must be told.

"It merely propelled me to keep trying and looking for yet another miracle."

Bit rank early. Sat in to top of lane, briefly bumpy, angled, light urging, easy. Tackles considerably tougher.

Race 6 News

Interestingly enough, the 16-year-old's career in bowling led him to harness racing.

In Chicago of 1959, Berry won a match that began his new and long lived career. "It was a match," Berry recalled, "where four of us put up five dollars apiece with the winner taking $15, second place getting his money back and the lowest two scorers paying for the highest two bowler's lines (games).

"I bowled a 248, 268, and 258 and I took the money." Berry said with a smile. "A gentleman by the name of Luke Schroer approached me after that match to give me a "tip" of sorts," Berry added, "as he won some money betting on the match."

Although John refused the offer, they ended up going out for a bite to eat. On that August in 1959, Schroer had taken John Berry to the racetrack, up to a box at Sportsman's Park---"41-A" Berry recalls.

From that night on, Berry had an ever-growing interest in the sport.

The gentleman who arranged for Berry to get Sportsman's Park films, Don Stevens, introduced him to Stan Bergstein.

Bergstein, who later would become harness racing's only double Hall of Famer, being inducted to both the Living Hall of Fame and as a Communicator, helped John to get his very first position in the harness racing world, as an Associate Editor of the 'The Illinois Sulky News,' working for the Illinois Harness Horsemen's Association.

His first position led to other doors opening. These 'doors' included jobs in publicity and public relations at Balmoral Park. At Balmoral, he wrote press releases and worked on handicapping and interviews.

After three years with the SBOANJ, he accepted a position with the USTA as Public Relations Manager, working from an office, in Freehold, New Jersey, to cover the New York-New Jersey and eastern racing scene, which was blossoming at the time.

When they asked him to move to Columbus, Ohio, he parted ways with the USTA and accepted a position with Sports Information Database (SIDB) as a Senior Editor for harness racing with the objective of putting the entire history of har-

HOT DANDY

Soft trip to far turn, tipped wide around fading rival, urged, managed runnerup. Rail again. Obvious player.

SING N SANDI

Looped leaving, parked eighth plus, tucked behind winner, chased to lane, urged, stalled bit. Fair form. Trips again. Use.

GOT TONE

Far back early, gapped bit to lane, some urging, even. Undercard seems best case scenario.

ROCKIN REPEAT

Rode cones whole trip, failed to get involved. Tough to recommend here.

KISSED THE BOYS

Parked eighth, back out before quarter, got lead but not rail, stalled out suddenly final turn. Another longshot.

CENALTA DRAGSTER

Shot from gate, braked until attacked by quarter mover, battled that one off, urged, away. Probably fires out again.

BRUSHIN ALBERT

Took out into far turn, wide around stalled foe, urged, caught late for 2nd slot. Negative post switch. His strategy?

ROCKET POWER

1st over into far turn, cover near 3/4s, driven, just a mild rally. Class drop. Mooney returns. Not the worst stab.

"I was honored to work with many of the great minds in sport, including Bill Shannon, the famed official scorer for baseball; Logan Hobson and Bob Canobbio, the inventors of 'punch-stat' for boxing matches; and one of harness racing's great geniuses, Phil Sporn."

A consolidation deal fell through and SIDB went out of business. Berry was asked if he was interested in moving to South Florida to be Public Relations Director at Pompano Park.

The track enjoyed its finest two seasons in history benefitting from promotions like a car giveaway, cruise nights, where 10,000 cruise passes were distributed to guests, and mall promotions.

John Berry has always worked to make the name of harness racing go viral across the world. He gained more exposure to the track when he

CRUSIN FOR YOU

3rd over half, good lead up, followed 3wide into lane, urged, flew to get the cheese. Luke's choice. Finally inside. Must use.

LAST DRAGON

Moved from back with lots of cover, followed pair 3wide into lane, just a mild rally. Post relief noted. Plays underneath?

TIMETOPLAYTHEGAME

Moved up 2nd over, kicked 3wide late in last bend, failed to sustain the bid. Okay form. Right trip puts him nearby.

MISTER HAT

Led mid turn, yielded, backed up by gapping foe far turn, cleared, rallied fast, too late. Gets needed post relief. Ryan returns. Solid threat.

BETTOR IN THE BANK

Rode cones to lane, heavy traffic, loose very late, had pace. Nathan stays in the bike. We like his chances here.

TO THE LIMIT

Rode cones in return, no chance considering the pace/position scenario. Certainly could be tighter now.

HIHOS LITTLE REV

Parked past quarter, yielded to winner half, chased, collapsed. Mooney's choice. Outside again. What's he gonna do?

became the host of his own radio show, featuring big bands and jazz from the 1920's and 1930's.

"The show featured music from many of the great bands that were left somewhat obscure to the vast majority," Berry explained. "I guess you would call them 'territory bands.'

While modern and pop music was taking over the radio stations, Berry's interests in the 'throw-back' tunes caught on in the public 'ear', so to say, and he had a lot of loyal listeners.

Around this time, Berry was elected President of the United States Harness Writers Association and served that organization for a two-year term.

GENE EUGENE
Sat in the trip, cleared, rallied well late to narrow gap. Drops from claimer, rail, not impossible.

TWOMICKEYTRIP
Parked eighth, brushed back 2nd panel, braked to final bend, attacked by winner, easy 2nd best. Okay form. Must include in all gimmicks.

BURNTISLAND BILLY
Left to tuck, back 1st over near half, attacked winner balance, held okay. Takes class dip. Looks very tough in here.

CENALTA ECLIPSE
Third over from last far turn, wide around stalled cover, rallied well. Bit better post. One more to toss on your tickets.

BLUE STAR JET
Sat soft trip to lane, cleared along rail, urged, photo'd for 3rd. Racing okay after returning from lengthy layoff. Thought.

OH YEAH
Parked turn, braked, attacked last bend, held tough to end. Also segues from claiming ranks. Fits with these.

BLUE STAR TROOPER
Gapped early, rode cones to lane, mild traffic, mild urging, fair. Dean returns. Class drop noted. Plan from outside?

MAJOR JESSE
Sent under urging, took back-side breather, attacked by pocket winner late far turn, driven to save show slot. Adds Steve. What's he do from #8?
