Foiled Again's surprise party is a hit

by Ken Weingartner,

Moments into his speech to accept the Stan Bergstein-Proximity Award on behalf of legendary pacer Foiled Again during Sunday's U.S. Harness Writers Association's Dan Patch Awards banquet, co-owner Joe Koury Jr. was halted by USHWA member Gordon Waterstone. Koury knew he had not exceeded his time limit because he was just getting started, so he was surprised.

Surprise was about to turn to shock. "Don't you think we ought to have the award-winner here?" Waterstone soon said to Koury. Enter Foiled Again. Foiled Again turned the idea of a surprise party upside down when he emerged from behind the curtained stage area to the delight of the 320

POORLITTLERICHGIRL

Took cover behind parked full foe, burst 3wide late last bend, urged to hold. Tighter? Obviously the price is gonna drop now.

FIRE DANCE

Rode cones for new connections, stuck in heavy traffic, cleared too late to have a chance, had pace. Adds chip Lackey. Gotta use.

PERFECT PITCH

Left, had lead but not rail, battled fave to far turn, called it off. Better post. Softer trip almost a certainty.

FRISKIES ANGEL

Out well before half, quick cover, solid lead up, burst 3wide late in bend, away comfortably. James choice over 2 others. One more must use.

NUTMEGS DESIRE

Parked turn, had to get back, out again late last turn, just a mild rally. Mild post relief tonight. Can she fire out?

SHEZ A SWIFT

Sent to hold position, pocket tripped behind speed duel, cleared, urged, tough to end. much best of the rest. Adds Nathan. Negative post switch.

HI FIDELITY

Sped from gate, attacked by parked full rival, shook her off far turn but expecte4dly tired. Far outside. Another in the speed mix.

banquet attendees at Rosen Shingle Creek resort. Only a handful of people knew in advance of Foiled Again's appearance, which was conceived by Waterstone with Foiled Again's co-owners Ron Burke and Mark Weaver.

"I was wondering what was going on," said Koury, who like the entire Burke Brigade other than Burke, Weaver and Foiled Again's caretaker for the night, Devan Miller, had no idea of the plan. "Next thing you know, Foiled was coming out. I was absolutely shocked. It was a great experience. It was exciting."

Said Joe Koury Sr., "When Foiled showed up, it was unbelievable. I was shocked. Tears were rolling down my cheeks, it was just amazing."

"I didn't expect it; that's the last thing that would have crossed my mind," said Yannick Gingras, who drove Foiled Again for the majority of the gelding's

Individual Recap Last Race Footnotes

OH YEAH

Rushed to catch gate, off 5-6 lengths, first over past half, didn't gain in fast panel, stalled. Just toss out that one. Use from rail.

COSMOS

Sat in whole trip, kicked out 3wide into lane, responded to strong urging, ran out of ground. James choice. Seems likely again.

WHO DAT LOVE

Out around gapper near quarter, 3rd over half, good lead up trip, closed well, but was caught from behind. Drops back to winning level.

COWBOYS DIRTYBOOTS

Away well, pocket tripped behind winner, asked to keep up far turn, driven, no rally. Decent form. Hard to rule him out of this quintet.

LUCKY IVAN

Rode cones from back, urged, no rally into strong mile. Adds Steve. Occasionally fires out. Still looks like longshot.

career and won numerous major stakes together. "I thought it was really cool, something different."

Many others had the same reaction, which was what Burke and his co-planners had hoped.

"It was unbelievable," Burke said. "I knew it would be a hit, especially with my father (Mickey), but it was a hit with everybody. It was one of the coolest moments ever. We thought it would be something nobody would be expecting and would add a little bit of fun, and it did."

Waterstone, who in addition to being a member of USHWA is associate editor of The Horseman And Fair World magazine, worked with the resort's staff to set up Foiled Again's appearance. It required an extra bit of insurance and a protective covering for the banquet room carpet, which was new.

BLUE NOTE

Sped from gate, brushed back 3/8s, repelled 1st attacker, urged to deny late bidder. Old-timer playing pretty tough right now, faces open company.

MISSPANDEROSAJONES

First over past half, covered up far turn, urged to get nod in 3horse show photo. Adds Ryan. Favorable draw. Certainly usable.

CAPITOL HILL

Left 3wide, parked turn, braked to final bend, sped up to deny attacker, caught by pocketeer. Post relief here. Obvious gimmick must.

BETTOR LADY

Looped, but left to midturn lead, yielded to fave, stalked, surged when urged late, up wire. Sharp form right now. Another in wide open open.

BRIGHTEN YOUR LIFE

Left 3wide, parked turn, broke into the far turn, disappeared. Extra week off probably helped. Still figures plenty tough based on prior miles.

DANCINGONTHE SAND

Reserved to far turn, popped out 1st over as the leader broke, kept marching, away easily late. Also sat out last week. Coming from last but in tiptop form.

"I called Mark about bringing Foiled Again to the banquet and he said to talk to Ronnie," Waterstone said. "I called Ronnie and he said absolutely, but he wanted to do it as a secret.

"It came off better than I thought it would. You keep your fingers crossed. The reaction was unbelievable. To be involved in this was really cool."

Foiled Again was already staying near Orlando, at the Burke's winter stable in Astor.

"Devan did a great job," Burke said. "She had to prep him for it and people were wondering why she was prepping him when he was just there hanging out. He looked incredible. I was thrilled."

Unfazed by the cheers that filled the banquet room and the joyful commotion that soon engulfed him, Foiled Again stood perfectly for his admirers.

WHY ASK WHY

Parked past quarter, yielded, track to lane, cleared, held okay. Drops from top class. Rail. Gotta like his chances.

ONE AND ONLY

Led early, yielded, tracked to lane, loose a bit late, finished full of pace. Adds James for second local start. Figures prominently here.

GRAVELSINMYTRAVEL

Out from half, suffered bad cover far turn, kicked wide, exploded to get the popular score. Nathan takes the drive. A tougher assignment now.

CRUSIN FOR YOU

Away well, rail rider to the lane, failed to rally. Mooney returns. Minor class relief but still figures longshot.

TO THE LIMIT

Sat in whole trip, behind last turn gapper but was only fair once free. Took a week off since. Not the worst stab.

MR VARSITY

Out past quarter, rimmed to 3/4s, attacked, stalled out late stages. Another one dropping from top class. Figures strongly among this six pack too.

"He was like a little showman," Joe Koury Sr. said. "He's like a celebrity, a celebrity of the humblest measure. It was just unbelievable. He's amazing. I love him to death."

Foiled Again reached harness racing's mandatory retirement age of 15 when the calendar turned to 2019. He is the sport's all-time richest horse, with $7.63 million in purses, and ranks ninth with 109 lifetime wins. He received Dan Patch Awards for best older male pacer in 2011, 2012 and 2013 and was Pacer of the Year in 2011.

Last year, he embarked on a Farewell Tour that attracted numerous fans to racetracks across North America, as well as garnering mainstream media attention. He will be inducted into the Harness Racing Hall of Fame in July.

STARTER'S RULES

1728. Starter's Control. The starter shall have control over the horses from the formation of the parade until he gives the word 'go.' The starter shall report to the stewards any misconduct or violation on the part of the driver and may order any unmanageable or disabled horse declared (scratched) from the race with the concurrence of the stewards.

1729. Starting the race. The starter shall bring the horses to the starting gate as near one-quarter of a mile from the starting point as the track may permit, and shall endeavor to get all horses away in position and on gait. If a horse refuses to come to the gate, is unmanageable or liable to cause an accident or injury to any other horse or driver, it may be declared and all monies wagered on that horse shall be refunded.

1730. Recalls. The starter may sound a recall for only the following reasons: 1-A horse scored ahead of the gate; 2- There is interference prior to the word 'go' being given; 3-A horse has broken equipment; 4-A horse falls prior to the word 'go' being given. There shall be no recall after the word 'go' is given and any horse, regardless of his position or an accident, shall be deemed a starter from the time he entered into the starter's control unless dismissed.

when she captured the $1 million final Aug. 4 at the Meadowlands. Driven by Scott Zeron, she won eight of 14 races last year and led all 3-year-old filly trotters with $1.01 million in purses. Her victories also included the Kentucky Filly Futurity and Empire Breeders Classic.

A daughter of Chapter Seven out of Hemi Blue Chip, Atlanta was owned in 2018 by trainer Rick Zeron, Michelle and Al Crawford's Crawford Farms, William Holland's Holland Racing Stable, Howard Taylor, and Brad Grant. She was bred by Order By Stable. The horse sold recently for a record $1.55 million to a group led by Michelle Crawford.

"I'm very happy," Crawford said. "I was very excited to hear her for Trotter of the Year. I think she deserves it. I watched her from the beginning and she's just a freak, a really phenomenal filly. I can't wait to put

BLUE STAR MAVERICK
Pocket tripped behind fave, stalked to lane, benefited when that one lugged out, some urging, tough score. Sharp, big class hike though.

EASTENDER
Parked half turn, yielded, brushed back to top, went for air last bend, driven, tough. Another hiker in decent form.

ALMOST CUT MY HAIR
1st over into last bend, covered up midbend, rallied on well, best of the rest. Can be nearby again with right trip.

PANCETTA
Sent from gate, yielded, back out on rim last bend, surged to top, nailed wire, ouch. Adds Ryan. Sharp, gotta use.

IM AN ATHLETE
Parked eighth plus, brushed back near 3/8s, battled to the lane, faded from the skirmish. Adds chip here. The plan?

BETTOR IN THE BANK
Out behind winner into far turn, kicked wide, surged again, almost. James choice. Figures to be flying at the end.

ICY BLUE SCOOTER
Sped to top, kept an honest clip, attacked into lane, not much resistance. Extra week off. Regularly plays plenty tough.

C.H.R.B. BREAKING RULES

1722. Breaking. Should any horse break from its gait in either trotting or pacing, the driver shall:

(a) Where clearance exists, take such horse to the outside.

(b) Attempt to pull the horse to its gait.

(c) Lose ground.

1723. Lapped-on Break. The driver of a horse which has broken from its gait who has complied with the breaking rule shall not be set back unless a contending horse on his gait is lapped on the hind quarter of the breaking horse at the finish.

her in the breeding shed and have her babies, but I'm not trying to get her off the track by any means. I'm excited for her future, but I'm not rushing her off the track. Not at all."

The announcements of Horse, Pacer, and Trotter of the Year were made during Sunday's banquet. Previously announced divisional champions also were honored at the event.

Division-winning pacers were 2-year-old colt Captain Crunch, 2-year-old filly Warrawee Ubeaut, 3-year-old gelding Dorsoduro Hanover, 3-year-old filly Kissin In The Sand, Shartin N, and McWicked. Division-winning trotters were 2-year-old colt Gimpanzee, 2-year-old filly Woodside Charm, 3-year-old colt Six Pack, 6-year-old gelding Homicide Hunter, 4-year-old mare Ariana G, and Atlanta.

Other honorees included Stan Bergstein-Proximity

Last Race Footnotes*LA DIVA DE ROSA

Behind early gapper, out past half, followed winner's cover, swung 3wide, urged to eke out 2nd spot. Back inside, adds Rene.

RUSH AND A BRUSH

3rd over half, good lead up trip, no late moves. Likely longshot once more.

GETTER QUEEN FLUSH

Sent from gate, pushed before yielding, back on rim far turn, failed to sustain the bid. Drops to winning level. Seems obvious.

FANCY LITTLE GIRL

Off gate pair, gapped early, 4th over half, angled to lane, urged, fair late interest. Enough post relief too have a look.

GREEKONA

Moved out on cover train, followed rival 3wide into the lane, urged, much best of the rest. Week off. Better post. Include.

MAGNIFIQUE

Shuffled to last, 4th over into lane, swung wide, urged, faded out from the chase. Drops from top class. Main threat to #3?

DIRECTING TRAFFIC

Off gate pair, rode cones in return, only fair once free. Outside again. Let's watch another.

DANDYS DUDUDIDUDU

Looped leaving, parked eighth plus, tucked behind winner, stalked to lane, stalled from the chase. Couple weeks off. Segues from claimers.

Award winner Foiled Again, Driver of the Year Aaron Merriman, Trainer of the Year Ron Burke, Breeder of the Year Order By Stable, Owners of the Year Burke Racing and the partnership of Mark Weaver and Mike Brussemi, and Rising Star Marcus Melander.

Foiled Again surprised the audience of 320 by emerging from behind the curtained stage as part of the Bergstein-Proximity presentation that kicked off the festivities. The crowd rose to its feet and cheered Foiled Again, the sport's all-time richest horse who retired at the end of 2018 following a farewell tour that attracted numerous fans to racetracks across North America and garnered mainstream media attention. Also recognized Sunday at the banquet were the members of the 2018 Hall of Fame class, which will be inducted in July: Blair Burgess, Ted Gewertz, Joe Holloway, Jerry Silverman, Linda Toscano, and Ted Wing.

GENE EUGENE
Rushed to be off gate 1, saved all ground to the lane, no late moves. In for 3k tag tonight.

MUCHO MACHO MAN
Led early, back first out from half, sped by leader, urged to maintain margin. Confidence builder. Ryan hops aboard.

HELLO SEVENS
Sat in the trip, cleared, but no rally into quick panel. Mooney gets the call for this.

BEST DREAM SEEKER
Saved all ground to the lane, urged, no danger to top trio, but well ahead of balance. Not the worst price stab.

A BAY BAY
Far back throughout, cleared into str, urged, best of others. Another dropping out of the $4000 bunch. Might awaken.

MIGHTY FINE HIHO
Took out into far turn, never really covered, kept on the move, urged, best of the rest. Luke's choice. Figures to be closing fast.

CAVIART SPENCER
Led early, yielded, stalked to lane, faded in the comebacker. Adds Chip Lackey. Post woes.

REGINA BEACH
Sent under urging, moderated middle half, sped home but couldn't deny class dropping fave. Down the road again for him? One to beat.
