A new twist on comprehensive predictive rankings for 3-year-olds

by Ken Weingartner

Part II of IV

Filly Trotters

Entering last year, filly trotter Woodside Charm was unknown to most people in racing. After a dominant 2-year-old campaign, in which she finished 7-for-7 and which included a world record at Saratoga Casino Hotel, a Breeders Crown trophy and a Dan Patch Award, she enters this year known as her division's horse to beat at age 3.

Woodside Charm—owned, trained and driven by Verlin Yoder—won her seven races by a total of nearly 38 lengths and never saw a rival within 1¾ lengths of her at the finish. Her 1:53.4 victory at Sa-ratoga Casino Hotel is history's fastest mile by a 2-year-old trotter on a half-mile track, bettering the previous record of 1:55.2 for a 2-

JUSTABITCRAZY

Away well, first over well before half, long uncovered grind, held pretty well. Facing another tough bunch but gotta use.

DON'T DOUBT THE LAKERS

Saved all ground to the lane, cleared, urged, no close into fast final quarter. Better post, adds Nathan. Slice maybe.

ALMOST CUT MY HAIR

First over into the far turn, advanced uncovered, photo'd for show. Extra week off. Mooney returns. One of many threats.

ONE AND ONLY

Out before quarter, moderated clip to far turn, took pressure from fave, stalled deep in the drive. Couple weeks off. Steve's back in bike.

MINT TO CRUISE

Sat in along cones, heavy stretch traffic, had some pace but not any room. Not worst stab.

MAJOR JESSE

Sped to top, yielded to winner passing quarter, chased to lane, stalled a bit into fast final quarter. Outside again. James steers here.

LAST DRAGON

Rode cones whole trip, no chance into blazing mile. Probably coming from last. Tough assignment.

She earned $521,658 in purses, which led all 2-year-old filly trotters. Her best win time of 1:53, set on the five-eighths oval at The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono in her Breeders Crown elimination, was second in the division to only When Dovescry's 1:52.3 clocking at Lexington's Red Mile.

"Woodside Charm looked scary," said trainer Richard "Nifty" Norman, who conditioned the most re-cent 3-year-old filly trotter to be named Horse of the Year, Bee A Magician, in 2013. "We'll see how she comes back, but she looked like a freak. You don't see a gait like that too often—an unbelievable gait.

"I try not to go there," Yoder said. "There are a lot of nice fillies out there."

If nothing else, Woodside Charm has recent history on her side. Over the past 17 years, no division has produced more repeat Dan Patch Award winners than the 3-year-old filly trotters, with nine 2-year-old champions returning to claim a trophy the following year. The majority of those repeaters have occurred in the past seven years, when Check Me Out, Shake It Cerry, Mission Brief, Broadway Donna and Ariana G all accomplished the feat.

Woodside Charm is by Chapter Seven out of Fireworks Hanover and is a half-sister to millionaire Explosive Matter. She overcame a leg injury as a weanling that cast doubt on her future to become the best horse of Yoder's career to date.

"I like her speed and smartness," Yoder said last year. "There are a lot of trotting fillies that are fast, but if you find one that's teachable and you can use when you want to use, then it's a different game."

So does going from an unknown to the talk of the division put pressure on Yoder and Woodside Charm?

Sonnet Grace went off stride in her Breeders Crown elimination, but otherwise won three of her final four starts, including the Goldsmith Maid. Her loss came by a neck to When Dovescry in the Matron.

"We're all chasing Verlin's filly," Sonnet Grace's trainer Ron Burke said. "Everybody is a step behind her. There's another group of us that are there, but we've got to go get her. She to me was as impressive as anybody since Mission Brief. She's special and people are going to find out that don't know already that Verlin is sharp.

Per Engblom, running his own stable after six years as Takter's top assistant, inherited Whispering Oaks as well as Beautiful Sin, who was limited to five 2018 starts because of injury. Whispering Oaks won sire stakes titles in New Jersey and Kentucky. Beautiful Sin was favored in all five of her races, winning three, and was second by a nose in her Doherty elimination and by a neck to The Ice Dutchess in the final.

"Whispering Oaks put on a lot of weight and she's actually looking much more solid this year," Engblom said. "She's a fast horse. I don't think she is one that can go all the way, but if she trips out, she can pretty much beat anyone."

Rene Allard-trained When Dovescry hit the board in all eight of her starts, winning five of her last six. In addition to capturing the Matron, she won a division of the International Stallion and her elimination of the Breeders Crown. She was second to Woodside Charm in the Breeders Crown final.

Race 10 News

at the end of the season. It's a tough division; there are a lot of nice trotting fillies out there, and I think she's one of them."

Once-beaten sire stakes champions Winndevie (New York) and Only Take Cash (Ohio) were also among last year's richest filly trotters. Winndevie, trained by Trond Smedshammer, suffered her only loss when she finished second in Woodside Charm's world-record mile at Saratoga.

Only Take Cash lost by a neck in her Ohio debut, but won her remaining races by a minimum of one length for trainer Bob McIntosh.

"She did everything we asked of her and we never really had to go to the bottom of the tank, which is nice," McIntosh said. "I'm looking forward to seeing how she stacks up against [Grand Circuit competition]. My biggest fear was that she wouldn't grow, but she did, so that was a relief. I'm really happy with her."

Individual Recap Last Race Footnotes

RED STAR TIGER
Parked eighth plus, blazed the clip to far turn, no resistance when attacked. Rene returns. Undercard maybe.

TORNADO HENRY

COSMOS
Pushed leaving, back out far turn, blew past stalling leader, caught near wire, much best of the rest. Ryan returns.

REGINA BEACH
Sent with many, parked 3/8s, took back, followed to lane, cleared gapping rival, still had some go. Luke takes the drive. Fires out?

MIGHTY FINE HIHO
Reserved to far turn, grabbed cover, urged to get up in time. Mooney's choice. Solid form. Big shot.

COWBOYS DIRTYBOOTS
Took loose cover far turn, angled wide, driven to narrow the gap. Nathan's choice. An easier spot tonight, beware.

A BAY BAY
Settled in for easy run to far turn, advanced to engage the leader, failed to sustain the bid. Another dropper. Post minor concern.

GENE EUGENE
Quarter moved, attacked far turn, faded out readily once passed. Third of three drop-pers. Price might be right from outside.
