A new twist on comprehensive predictive rankings for 3-year-olds

Colt and Gelding Pacers

Fairytales can come true. And true stories can become fairytales. So it is with the true story fairytale of Captain Crunch.

Captain Crunch's co-owner Buck Chaffee, who owns Caviart Farms with his wife, Judy, offered his take on the tale for the crowd at February's Dan Patch Awards banquet, where Captain Crunch was honored as the sport's best 2-year-old male pacer of 2018.

He told of a young girl, Ella Johansson, falling in love with a colt and her mother, trainer Nancy Johansson, putting together a team of owners to buy the horse. He talked of Johansson and her husband, Marcus, turn-

COWBOYS DIRTYBOOTS

Rode cones to lane, heavy traffic, loose late, had good pace near wire. Nathan's choice. Better post. Gotta use.

ZACHARIAHS HONOR

Rode cones to the lane, shook out of traffic, urged, eked out place photo. Leading driver hops aboard. Price drops.

LINCOLN

Far back, failed to make any menacing moves. Improved post. Maybe a slice of it.

FLY AWAY

Sped from gate, yielded to winner, chased to lane, urged to save 2nd. Should have the lead at once. Controls the pace?

OH YEAH

Sent with many, first up near half, alongside winner far turn, stalled suddenly in lane. Back with nickel claimers. Gimmick must.

A BAY BAY

Moved out near half, good trip to lane, failed to make any menacing moves. Outside again. Tries Mooney.

ing him "from a young whippersnapper into a great athlete." Enter driver Scott Zeron, guiding the horse to victories "until one rainy night at the Breeders Crown the horse wins his Crown and the young girl, who is now a princess, comes back and kisses the horse and he turns into a champion."

"That's sort of the story of Captain Crunch," Chaffee said. "At least that's the first year. And now we're looking forward to the next year. Hopefully, Marcus and Nancy have some more magic left and will work their magic and the horse will do well and we'll be back here again. But I know we'll all live happily ever after. It's a great story."

Captain Crunch, a son of Captaintreacherous out of Sweet Paprika, from the family of Dan Patch Award-winner Sweet Lou and multimillionaire Bettor Sweet, won six of 10 races last year and led all 2-year-old male pacers in purses. His victories included the Breeders Crown,

SURPRISINGLY SWEET

Took cover into far turn, swung wide, exploded, away. Inside post tonight. Looks awfully strong on paper.

BURN MY VILLA

Moved inside last turn traffic, kicked back out 3/4s, followed winner into lane, solid close.

Also gets post relief. Another must use.

DUET

Left alone, braked to half, opened up with 28 panel far turn, never a worry. Sharp, tackles tougher company. Can she get home enough?

ALONG CAME JANE

Left, out mid turn to top, yielded 3/8s, chased to lane, never had a clear path. Looks like another player in the mix.

TOTALLY RACY

Along rail whole trip, kicked out for drive, urged, strong close.

Extra week off. What's her plan from the outside?

He will try to become only the fourth male pacer in 24 years to earn Dan Patch honors at ages 2 and 3, joining his sire Captaintreacherous, Somebeachsomewhere and Bettor's Delight.

"Right now, he's definitely the one to beat," said trainer Brian Brown, who returns several horses that will take aim at Captain Crunch. "He's the one we're all going to be shooting for."

Johansson brought Captain Crunch along slowly last year, for a variety of reasons; his big size, his immaturity, and the need for preservation for the long haul. He won his first three races, then battled sickness at mid-season before winning three of his final five starts while finishing second once.

"Scott did a great job with 'Crunch,'" Johansson said. "We never saw the bottom with him. And until maybe the Breeders Crown final, it was probably the first time he actually knew what he was doing out there. He was very mentally immature."

The colt matured over the winter, Johansson said, and he remains an eye-catching specimen.

"He has charisma," Johansson said. "You see him and you're like, 'Who is this?' When he is on the track jogging with the other horses, it's like he's got a spotlight on him. I pinch myself. I'm like, 'How did we end up with him for $85,000? How did that happen?' It was just meant to be, I guess. We were at the right place at the right time. You need to be lucky.

"And you need Ella too."

Captain Crunch is not Johansson's only top returning horse in the division. She took over the training of Matron Stakes winner Blood Money from her retired father, Jimmy Takter.

PYLON RULE

(For Horses Racing Without Interference)

1. Going inside two (2) pylons and lapped-on at the finish: The offending horse will be disqualified and placed behind any lapped-on horses at the wire.
2. Going inside three (3) or more consecutive pylons: The offending horse will be disqualified and placed last.
3. If an unfair advantage is gained by going inside, over, or in-between one or more pylons in order to pass another competitor: The offending horse will be disqualified.

The steward's discretion applies to all placement.

Race 5 News

"I always liked Blood Money when he trained down last year," Johansson said. "I always had my eye on him and told my dad it was his best pacer. I personally think he was one of the best of the year. He had to be in the top five pacing colts. He's a good-sized colt, so if he can just get a little stronger, I think he will be right there too.

"Blood Money and Crunch are different types of horses. I think that works to our advantage. Blood Money is one of those quick, handy horses. I think he will do well some places I wouldn't take Crunch. I like Blood Money. I wouldn't sell him short. I think he can improve from last year. I'm very excited about this year."

ICY BLUE SCOOTER

Parked half turn, brushed out past half, stormed by leader, caught by one he led up. Solid form. Gotta use.

BETTOR IN THE BANK

Out near half, covered before far turn, good lead up, surged late to get it. Chip Lackey pilots here.

KING OF THE CROP

Left a bit, took back mid turn, out into final bend, loose cover to lane, urged, just mild late interest. Plan when the gate springs?

ALLMYXSLIVENTEXAS

sickness. He was scratched from the Breeders Crown the following week because of an issue with a high nail.

"It was just one thing after another the last couple starts, but I'm real happy with him and the way he's come back so far," Coleman said. "I couldn't have been happier with him last year. You can do any-thing with him. It's very easy to manage him and he gets around any sized track.

"It's going to be tough this year because there are a lot of nice colts. Captain Crunch looked great last year, ended his season very good, but I don't see anyone that looks like that killer standout right now. I hope there is a standout and it's Stag Party, but I think it's going to be the kind of group that mixes it up a lot."

STARTER'S RULES

1728. Starter's Control. The starter shall have control over the horses from the formation of the parade until he gives the word 'go.' The starter shall report to the stewards any misconduct or violation on the part of the driver and may order any unmanageable or disabled horse declared (scratched) from the race with the concurrence of the stewards.

1729. Starting the race. The starter shall bring the horses to the starting gate as near one-quarter of a mile from the starting point as the track may permit, and shall endeavor to get all horses away in position and on gait. If a horse refuses to come to the gate, is unmanageable or liable to cause an accident or injury to any other horse or driver, it may be declared and all monies wagered on that horse shall be refunded.

1730. Recalls. The starter may sound a recall for only the following reasons: 1-A horse scored ahead of the gate; 2- There is interference prior to the word 'go' being given; 3-A horse has broken equipment; 4-A horse falls prior to the word 'go' being given. There shall be no recall after the word 'go' is given and any horse, regardless of his position or an accident, shall be deemed a starter from the time he entered into the starter's control unless dismissed.

Crown runner-up; once-beaten Workin Ona Mystery; and Air Force Hanover.

"Even though I think Captain Crunch is the horse to beat, I like my three and I like how they're coming back," Brown said. "I'm not looking to trade them for anybody. None of them had any serious lameness issues last year, so they're coming back in pretty good shape so far.

"Air Force Hanover has really grown and filled out. He was a June foal, so he was always kind of a little bit behind. It didn't seem to really hurt him. His biggest problem was he was a little hard to handle. I think by the end of the year we had that worked out. Proof looks really sharp right now and I expect him to be better this year.

"Workin Ona Mystery—last year at one time, I thought he was my best one of the three. He bled pretty good in his Breeders Crown elimination and that's the only time he was beaten. I think Lasix is going to help them

Mangogh was a multiple Grand Circuit stakes winner for trainer Bruce Saunders and ranked among the season's fastest 2-year-old male pacers. Saunders is aiming for the North America Cup-Max C. Hempt Memorial-Meadowlands Pace stretch that begins in mid-June.

"He should be in the conversation," Saunders said. "He has a couple of attributes that are necessary to be a top colt. He never gets tired and he developed the kind of gate speed to position himself in those races. He's strong, he loves his job.

He not only has lasting speed, but he has quick speed. He doesn't need to improve much to be competitive."

Nova Scotia's Wayne McGean usually develops young horses and sells them, but decided last year to hold on to his 2-year-olds. His reward was O'Brien finalist Bronx Seelster, who counted the Battle of Waterloo among his seven victories.

Individual Recap Last Race Footnotes

WINONEFORDOUG

Led at once, yielded to quarter moving fave, chased to lane, urged, almost. Figures to cut the mile or pocket trip it.

STYLEMASTER

Parked eighth plus, ended up in a battle for the top, faded out once passed. Extra week off but lands a nice spot tonight.

EXCEPTIONAL

Saved all ground to the lane, cleared, urged, solid rally, much best of the rest. Sits in and closes for part again?

GET DOWN TONIGHT

Gapped in fast paced heat, failed to keep up late stages. Week off. Second start back. Mooney's in the bike.

TICKET TO ROLL

Out on rim near half, quick cover, tried wide bid, stalled. Probably coming from the back again.

ALLAMERICAN SOLO

Left to nice tuck, sat in to lane, urged, flew final eighth to take it. James choice. Looks tough once more.

C.H.R.B. BREAKING RULES

1722. Breaking. Should any horse break from its gait in either trotting or pacing, the driver shall:

(a) Where clearance exists, take such horse to the outside.

(b) Attempt to pull the horse to its gait.

(c) Lose ground.

1723. Lapped-on Break. The driver of a horse which has broken from its gait who has complied with the breaking rule shall not be set back unless a contending horse on his gait is lapped on the hind quarter of the breaking horse at the finish.

Race 11 News

"We staked him up pretty good," McGean said. "He is one of those horses that just fights right to the end. He's tough. He likes to race. He's one of those kind you don't get very often. It took me 61 years to get one that good. This is just a hobby. I'm just having a bit of good luck now."

De Los Cielos Deo won his first five races last season before finishing second in the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes final and his elimination of the Metro. He was no better than fourth in three remaining starts, but was dealing with a foot issue.

"He started out like the horse that I thought he was," trainer Ron Burke said. "He had a little hiccup at the end, but I still have faith in him. I still think he's a top-top horse and can be as good as any 3-year-old we've had. I've got to work carefully with him and make sure soundness does not become an issue, and maybe change his racing style a little bit, but I still love that colt."

CENALTA COUGAR

Stuck last while fave slowed the half, came on with last turn cover, driven, no rally. Tries Gerry.

BLUE NOTE

Left, out past quarter to easy lead, attacked far turn, gave way grudgingly. Luke's choice.

Good spot. The favorite?

SPEAK ENGLISH

2nd over into far turn, good lead up, urged, just fair. Drops, James returns. Usable.

LA MADAWNA DE ROSA

Stalked top pair to middle of last turn, tipped out on rim, urged, photo'd for 2nd check.

Fair form. Undercard?

MISSPANDEROSAJONES

Sent to top, yielded, backed up in traffic, cleared, only fair once free. Mooney's choice.

Dangerous down here.

MELODIES THAT ROCK

Led into turn, yielded before half, chased to lane, squeezed out, urged up wire. Steve's choice. These are tougher though.

PERFECT PITCH

Away well, yielded, tracked to lane, failed to rally. Now a tougher post to overcome.
