A new twist on comprehensive predictive rankings for 3-year-olds

by Ken Weingartner

Part IV of IV

Filly Pacers

When filly pacer Warrawee Ubeaut stopped the clock in 1:48.3 last October at Lexington's Red Mile, co-owner Mark Weaver was thrilled. He was also relieved. For years, Weaver watched and wondered when Sweet Lou's 1:49 world record for a 2-year-old pacer, set in 2011, would fall. The mark was equaled twice, but never lowered until one of Sweet Lou's own offspring, Warrawee Ubeaut, accomplished the feat.

"I've always kind of been protective of Sweet Lou's 1:49 mark," said Weaver, who was among Sweet Lou's owners during his

SPARKIN YOUR FIRE

Saved all ground, failed to show any late interest. Opted off of last week's track. Inside switch noted. Who knows?

MOONSHINEMONKEYS

Led early, yielded, tracked to lane, never clear. James stays. Shall be the likely favorite among these.

LA DIVA DE ROSA

Out well before half, uncovered balance, kept marching, nailed wire. Another with post relief. Main threat to #3?

SWEET ONE

Rode cones whole trip, didn't muster much of a late rally in the fast mile. What's her plan in here?

While becoming history's fastest 2-year-old pacer was awesome, it was far from Warrawee Ubeaut's only accomplishment. The filly won multiple Grand Circuit stakes, including the Breeders Crown, and led all 2-year-old pacers in earnings with $646,995 in purses.

At the end of the season, she was named the division's Dan Patch Award winner by the U.S. Harness Writers Association.

"She had a great year," trainer Ron Burke said. "There is no limit on what she can do. The filly has as much speed as any horse we've ever had. I think as long as we manage her correctly, she is going to be very compet-

Trying to predict success from one year to the next can be a fool’s errand. Since the first Dan Patch Award for 2-year-old filly pacers was handed out in 1978, only six divisional champions have returned at age 3 to capture a second trophy: Three Diamonds, Town Pro, Miss Easy, Worldly Beauty, See You At Peelers and Pure Country.

Beginning in 2011, though, being the fastest 2-year-old filly (or tied for fastest) has produced three Dan Patch Award winners at age 3: American Jewel, I Luv The Nitelife and Pure Country. Another four fillies in that category won at least $400,000 at 3.

“If you don’t have the speed, then the manners or the gait or anything else doesn’t matter really,” said Yannick Gingras, who was Warrawee Ubeaut’s only driver. “For Manners and being able to put her in spots where she might be uncomfortable and have her relax, that's a big thing when you go from 2 to 3, in my opinion. Joe Holloway-trained Zero Tolerance hit the board in all 13 of her races last year, winning seven, including a Bluegrass Stakes division. She finished second twice to Warrawee Ubeaut—in the Breeders Crown and Kentuckiana Stallion Management Stakes—and also was second in the Three Diamonds.

Parked turn, braked, attacked by winner late last bend, held okay in the comeback tuner. Tighter? Mooney takes the drive.
